Policy #42
Approval of County Incentives for Economic Development

The St. Clair County Commission recognizes the value of cooperative efforts with the St. Clair County Economic Development Council in developing plans that can affect various governmental entities, private corporations and the economic future of St. Clair County.

Therefore, effective with the approval of this policy, all future county incentives for economic development projects must be submitted to and reviewed by the St. Clair County Economic Development Council, who will make written recommendations for approval to the St. Clair County Commission, if appropriate.

Dated this the 26th day of September 2006.
